

Stakeholder Meeting Agenda

Monday, October 24th
University of Colorado Boulder
IBS Building, room 155

- 8:30 Arrive, register, coffee
- 9:00 Welcome, Introductions and Meeting Purpose – Ursula Rick
- 9:20 Overview of snowpack monitoring research – Jeff Lukas
  - New spatial snowpack products and their utility
  - Snowpack workshops and snowpack monitoring user’s guide
- 9:45 NIDIS and the Intermountain West Drought Early Warning System – Alicia Marrs (NIDIS)
Advancing drought early warning in western Colorado – Jeff Lukas
The EDDI drought indicator – Imtiaz Rangwala
- 10:10 Agricultural climate adaptation decision models – Bill Travis
- 10:20 Potential evapotranspiration in Salt Lake Valley – Seth Arens
- 10:30 Networking Break
- 11:00 Extreme events database and maps – Jeff Lukas
- 11:10 Using MOEA to examine water management tradeoffs – Joe Kasprzyk
- 11:20 The Water Resources Management Outlook Tool – Andrea Ray
- 11:30 Mapping climate services in the West – Elizabeth McNie
- 11:45 New tools and resources – Group activity – Elizabeth McNie
- 12:00 Working Lunch
- 1:00 Updates from Regional Climate Service and Research Partners – Bill Travis
  - USDA Northern Plains Regional Climate Hub
  - North Central Climate Science Center
  - Earth Lab
- 1:30 Breakout groups – What are key changes, challenges, and opportunities since 2013 that affect your job/sector? What has worked in connecting science and decision-making (e.g. organizations, tools, engagement, R2O, methods, etc.)? What made it effective for you?
- 2:15 Report out from breakout groups – Facilitated by Elizabeth McNie
- 3:00 Wrap-up